

Spring Dance Weekend

English Country Dance with Special Guests
Jacqueline Schwab & Michelle Levy

David Newitt, expert dance teacher and ever-popular caller, brings a special affinity for English Country Dance. He will call for Saturday workshops as well as for the evening dance.

Rebecca King, a sought-after pianist, interprets the tunes with strong, rhythmical energy. She will accompany the afternoon workshops with grace and flair.

Yvonne Couvillion and Gary Sandler will team up to provide delightful dance direction as we gather outdoors on May Day.

Quite Carried Away is David Wright, Susan Jones, Arlene Jamar, Sandra Westfall, Martin Lodahl, Dick Holdstock, and Jane Kostka, creating rich textures and rhythm for your dancing pleasure on May Day.

Saturday evening's dance will sparkle with the playing of this beautiful duo—

Jacqueline Schwab, with masterful and lyrical improvisation on the piano, has toured widely, inspiring people on the country dance floor through her music making with Bare Necessities. She gained a wider audience through her work with Ken Burns on the The Civil War, The National Parks, and other PBS documentaries. Jacqueline's travel from Massachusetts is funded by contributions from our local dancers to the SCDS annual fund drive.

Michelle Levy, at home in styles ranging from Olde to Old Timey, master of many bowed string instruments, takes to the violin to gladden hearts and make our English dance melodies soar.
